

Guide to Submit TRO Application

1. Starting from 2016, all TRO applications will be submitted online at <https://bioinfo.osa.sunysb.edu/tro/>. You must be the Principal Investigator of the application. You will need your SBU NetID and password to login:

The screenshot shows a web browser window with a red header bar. Below the header is a white box containing the "NetID Single Sign-On" login form. The form has a title bar with the text "NetID Single Sign-On". Below the title bar, it says "Please enter your NetID and NetID Password". There are two input fields: "NetID:" and "NetID Password:". Below these fields is a checkbox labeled "Warn me before logging into other sites and applications." with an unchecked box. Below the checkbox is a yellow box containing the text "By logging in you agree to abide by the Stony Brook University IT Policies and Terms of Service". Below this box is a red "LOGIN" button and a link that says "Forgot Your NetID or NetID Password?". At the bottom of the page, there is a small copyright notice: "Copyright © 2008-2016 Stony Brook University Division of Information Technology - All Rights Reserved Phone: (631) 432-2800 | Web: service.stonybrook.edu".

2. For new TRO applicants, you will be asked to provide your information:

The screenshot shows a web browser window with a red header bar. On the left side of the header is the Stony Brook University Health Sciences Center logo. On the right side of the header is the text "Targeted Research Opportunities / Physician Scientist Training Program". Below the header is the title "My Information:". Below the title is a form with five input fields: "Firstname", "Lastname", "Department" (a dropdown menu), "Phone", and "Email". Each field has a red asterisk to its right. Below the form is a red asterisk followed by the text "required entry". Below the form is a button labeled "Enter". At the bottom of the page, there is a red horizontal line and a small copyright notice: "© 2004, Office of Scientific Affairs".

3. For previous TRO awardees, or for new TRO applicants who successfully input their information, the following page will appear. Click the 'click here to apply' link to submit your application. The orange box and the link will be removed after the application deadline.
